

FRIDAY A BIG DAY AT THE TABERNACLE

Conference Was Favored With Most Beautiful Weather.

TRIO OF GOOD SERMONS

Dr. Lunsford Spoke in the Morning on "A New Crisis," Delivering a Most Able Discourse—Dr. Blackstone in Afternoon—Evening Service.

The beautiful weather brought out fine audiences to hear the Bible Conference speakers Friday. The tide of the Conference is rising, and a deep spiritual atmosphere prevails. It is a very remarkable thing that so many great men should be in such perfect harmony and sympathy in their teaching and spirit.

The Quiet Hour service at the 9 o'clock morning hour was conducted by Dr. Walker. It was a delightful service and the message was heart searching.

Dr. Lunsford's Lecture.

The morning lecture at 10 o'clock was delivered by Dr. William Lunsford. It was one of the very best addresses yet given at the Conference. He spoke from Mat. 4:18-22. Dr. Lunsford's theme was "A New Crisis." He said:

"A crisis is a turning point, a critical moment which comes to the individual. The crisis to the four disciples mentioned in the text follows the crisis in the life of our Lord in the temptation in the wilderness. The surroundings to the scene are most significant—the river where the baptism of Christ occurred, the wilderness, lonely and forbidding, and the Sea of Galilee, restless and unhappy. The text discloses five things, namely: A Call, Crisis, Position, Results and Power.

"1. The Call.—These disciples knew Jesus before. They knew His voice, they knew His person, His power, and His claim on them and in a sense, they were His followers, though sometimes following a long way off. James and John, Andrew and Simon were two sets of brothers. They already had heard the call to believe in Jesus, but this was a distinct call to surrender to Him entirely.

"2. Crisis.—The Christian life is not always growth. There are great days, great seasons, crises. All of life depends on one of these periods, and we are either better or worse after such a crisis. God strikes down now, just as suddenly, as when He struck Belshazzar, Herod, Ananias and Saphira. Felix reached the great crisis when he trembled before Paul, and went back from the great opportunity, I believe to be a worse man. Napoleon said that there was always a pivot point in every battle, and after that the conflict always swung to victory or defeat.

"3. Position.—We are called to make a great sacrifice. Sympathy and humility are great Christian graces, the greatest Christian grace is the one that brings me to say, 'No,' and to lay myself on the altar. Religion does not become real till it reaches outside things. A mother, who had an only son, was very desirous that he should be a lawyer, and accordingly he prepared himself for that profession. One day, however, he came to her and told her that he felt the call of God to be a missionary. The mother was greatly incensed, but the boy began to prepare himself for the great work. One day, the mother in her room alone fought out the great battle and won the victory. When the time came for his departure, as he stepped in the wagon to leave the old home, his mother, leaning upon the arm of her husband, drew from her finger her engagement ring, and said as she placed it upon his finger, 'Wear this until we meet upon earth, or in heaven.' Shortly after reaching Africa, the young man died, and in a little while the mother followed. And I believe that for many years they have been walking the streets of the New Jerusalem and I doubt not that the ring has been placed upon the mother's hand. God tests us to take this position of faith. He does not explain—simply says 'Take it.'

"4. Results.—Jesus never forgot that the disciples left all to follow Him. He never forgot the surrender they made. He has my name down, and He knows me by name, as well as by characteristics. If you have ever surrendered to Jesus, He knows it and remembers it. The disciples got better all the time. They were better after the first call and still better after the second, but not perfect men until

DO YOU GET UP WITH A LAME BACK?

Almost everybody who reads the newspapers is sure to know of the wonderful cures made by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder remedy.

It is the great medical triumph of the nineteenth century; discovered after years of scientific research by Dr. Kilmer, the eminent kidney and bladder specialist, and is wonderfully successful in promptly curing lame back, uric acid, catarrh of the bladder and Bright's Disease, which is the worst form of kidney trouble.

Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is not recommended for everything but if you have kidney, liver or bladder trouble it will be found just the remedy you need. It has been tested in so many ways, in hospital work and in private practice, and has proved so successful in every case that a special arrangement has been made by which all readers of this paper, who have not already tried it, may have a sample bottle sent free by mail, also a book telling more about Swamp-Root, and how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. When writing mention reading this generous offer in this paper and send your address to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. The regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles are sold by all good druggists. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Pentecost; then they sprang up as men clothed with power.

"5. Power.—My place of victory is the point of surrender to Jesus Christ. 'I will make you fishers of men.' I will make you. There is power, and so we become successful through the power of Jesus."

The Afternoon Session.

At the afternoon hour Dr. Blackstone spoke on the Second Coming of Christ, Jao. 14:3, "I will come again." "It is said of Dr. Gordon of Boston that he was in his study one day, tired and weary, writing a sermon. He fell asleep and dreamed that he was preaching. Just as he began, he saw a stranger come in and sit in the pew of one of the deacons. He could not see anyone else in the congregation during the sermon. At the close of the sermon, he started to go down to speak to the stranger, but he was interrupted, and before he reached the pew the stranger had disappeared. He asked the deacon who the stranger was. The deacon said it was Jesus Christ, but that he would come again. At this Dr. Gordon awoke. But the dream made a change in his pulpit, in his cultivated choir, which was dismissed, and in the congregation. The church gave money for charities as never before.

"This great doctrine of the Second Coming of Christ had its inception in the Garden of Eden, and we read, 'The seed of the woman shall bruise the serpent's head.' Also the promise to Abraham, 'In thee and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.' Isaiah said, 'Behold, a virgin shall conceive and bear a child, and shall call his name Immanuel.' There are two comings of Christ in the Bible. First, the coming of Messiah to Israel, and second, the coming of Christ again. The reformed Jews have given up all thought of the coming of the Messiah. The orthodox Jews believe it. Zechariah says that He is to come on a colt, and in another place that He is to come in the clouds of heaven. The rabbis have invented two Messiahs. One from the tribe of Joseph to be killed, the other from the tribe of Judah to rule. The greatest prophesied event of the future is that Jesus is coming again. This fact occurs in the creeds of all churches. The coming of Christ does not mean death, for death is an enemy, and the coming of Christ is to reunite us with our loved ones."

At night Dr. Lunsford delivered a grand sermon on "Fellowship With the Father," to a splendid audience.

Big Educational Meeting Ends.

Boston, Feb. 17.—No convention of an educational character held in Boston has been marked by more meetings than those held yesterday by the religious education association and those arranged for today when the convention was to be brought to a close. The various sessions so far have been attended not only by accredited delegates to the convention but also by many people of greater Boston, who have been attracted by the scope and variety of the topics discussed and by the ability of the speakers. Interest in today's meetings centered largely in the session of the general convention.

Perished for Child's Sake.

Cheboygan, Mich., Feb. 17.—Albert Flucy walked on the ice from Bois Blanc Island to this city Saturday night to get medicine for his sick child. The mercury was 16 below zero, and a wild snowstorm was raging, but he bravely set out on the return trip about midnight with a lantern and compass to guide him. That was the last seen of him, and there is little doubt that he perished and his body was covered by drifting snow. His wife came to this city to look for him, and a large searching party was organized, both here and on the island to search for his body. He was 31 years of age.

Health

Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without it's upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest obtained by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes, April 8, 1902: "I use Herbine, and find it the best medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." Price 50 cents. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

How Japanese Settle Quarrels.

The Japanese manner of settling quarrels is quite original. When one man has offended another the injured party gives notice that he is angry by drawing in the sand before the door of the offender a circle with a straight line across it, indicating that his affection, which would have been eternal, has been cut in two. Friends of both parties then shut them up. They parley awhile, then pretend to be born again, prattle as little children and finally as men become reconciled and embrace. Should one be refractory and refuse to be conciliated he is ostracized by the community so effectively that he is soon brought to terms. It is just possible that our enlightened citizens might consider this method better than knockdown arguments and certainly much cheaper than going to law.

Poisons in Food.

Fines For Church Shirkers.

After being dormant for some years the act (3 Jas. I. c. 4, 1606) which provided that any person absenting himself from his church on a Sunday without sufficient excuse should be fined twelvepence for each absence and imprisoned in default of distress on his goods until the fine was paid was revived in 1838. A report of the inspectors of prisons contains a list of eleven persons in Lancashire fined and imprisoned under the act between Feb. 12, 1839, and May 10, 1840. In one case a laborer was in prison for ten weeks (until released by order of the home secretary) after being convicted in a penalty of 1 shilling, with 14 shillings costs, for having been absent from church a single Sunday. This act was repealed, so far as regards Roman Catholics, in 1844, and wholly in 1846. —London Chronicle.

Shaftesbury's Retort.

When a member of a church congress at Manchester argued that the introduction of the custom of cremation would endanger belief in the resurrection of the dead the reply of Lord Shaftesbury silenced any further doubt when he asked, "What, then, has become of the holy martyrs who were cremated?"

YOUNG WIFEHOOD

Boston, Mass., 152 Shawmut Ave., Oct. 25, 1902.
After I had been married about four months I felt my health generally decline. I seemed to lose the light step and dragged wearily along instead. My appetite failed me and I lost health and strength. I was nervous and had shooting pains through my limbs and stomach while bearing down pains and constant headaches added to my misery. The menstrual flow became more and more profuse and I was unfit to attend to my daily duties. My husband called in three different physicians and I took enough medicine to kill or cure a dozen women, but it all had no effect on me whatever, until I took Wine of Cardui. In a few days I felt a change for the better, my general health improved and at the next time of my periods my flow was more natural and I was in less pain. Gradually I recovered my health and strength and am now in perfect health. I take an occasional dose of Wine of Cardui which keeps me well.
I am happy to give you this endorsement.

Bertha Ricker
President, Back Bay Woman's Club.

Why don't you try for the same health Mrs. Ricker has? It is easy to secure if you take Wine of Cardui according to directions. Wine of Cardui strengthens weak and worn-out women of any age and assists the mother and housewife to bear her exacting duties. Wine of Cardui makes women fit for all the duties of womanhood.

It will relieve the pains of irregularity, cures falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, ovarian troubles, and has been known to remove what physicians considered dangerous tumors. Women who use Wine of Cardui do not suffer at the monthly periods. They do not suffer hysterical attacks, because Wine of Cardui gives them strong nerves freed from the irritation of female suffering.

A $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui purchased from your druggist will keep you free from pain.
